What is a Senior Center?

Senior Centers exist to help aging adults enjoy the company of their peers and participate in activities that are healthy, engaging and fun.

Recognized and funded through the Older Americans Act, (OAA) as a community focal point, Senior Centers have become one of the most widely used services within the Aging Services Network.

Senior Centers aren't just a place for great programs and activities. Many Centers such as the Ludlow Senior Center also offer volunteer opportunities, provide outreach programs such as Fuel Assistance, SHINE services, Brown Bag, congregate lunches and offer exercise programs, recreational programs, and other programs to further help older adults within our communities age in place.

There are approximately 10,000 Senior Centers in the United States which serve more than one million older adults every day. Visit us or one of the surrounding communities today!
